

Q1. What are the International Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea and how do they affect the vessel you command?

Q2. What are your responsibilities as the person in charge of a vessel?

Q3. Where would you find your responsibilities written down on the vessel?

Q4. What legislation governs the vessel and how it operates?

Q5. Would you consider the Marine Orders to be part of a Code of Practice?

Q6. In fog, you hear the fog signal of a vessel close by, describe your actions?

Q7. We have recently had major changes in legislation, where would you go to access the new legislation and how would you apply it?

Q8. What records on a vessel would you consider are mandatory?

Q9. How often do Marine Licences need to be revalidated?

Q10. What certificates do you need on a commercial vessel?

Q11. Explain the differences between International Association of Lighthouse Authorities (IALA) Buoyage System A and B?

Q12. What is a Safety management system and what does it contain?

Q13. Explain / outline the purpose of the National Standard for Commercial Vessels (NSCV)?

Q14. What are Marine Information Bulletins and who issues them. What are Marine Orders and who issues them?

Q15. As the Master of a vessel you are required to undertake regular emergency practice drills. List the intervals drills are to be undertaken as outlined in NSCV.

Q16. Describe the statutory requirements for the following equipment on board your vessel (outline number and types, location and serviceability checks) for a class 2C vessel.

- a. Lifesaving appliances

- b. Fire appliances to be carried on board a vessel

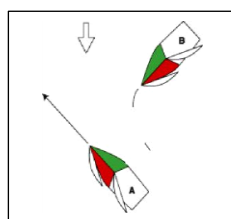

Q17. Indicate the colour and arc of visibility for the following navigation lights, power driven vessel, less than 50 m.

- a. Side Light Port
- b. Side Light (Starboard)
- c. Stem
- d. Masthead / Steaming Light
- e. Towing Light
- f. All round light/ Anchor Light

Q18. Explain the rule that is most appropriate to this situation where Vessel A is overtaking Vessel B and how does A determine they are the overtaking vessel?

Q19. Which vessel is the give way vessel?

Describe the relevant rule.

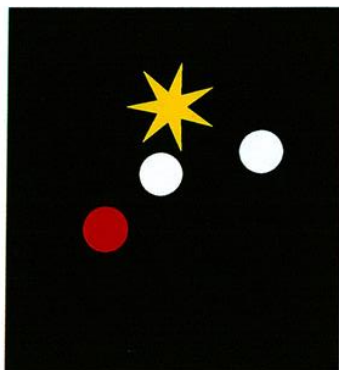

Q20. Outline the considerations when navigating in a Narrow Channel?

Q21. What is the responsibility of a vessel who is required to Give Way?

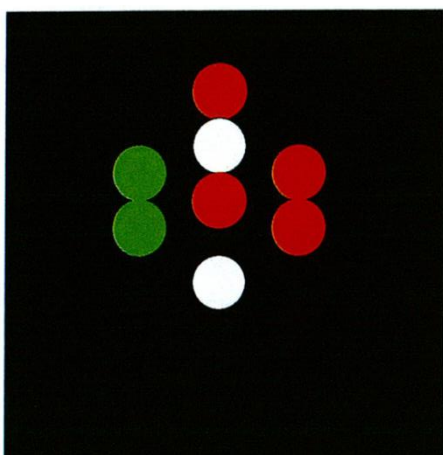

Q22. What is the responsibility of a vessel that is required to Stand On?

Q23. List four (4) considerations you must give when operating in restricted visibility?

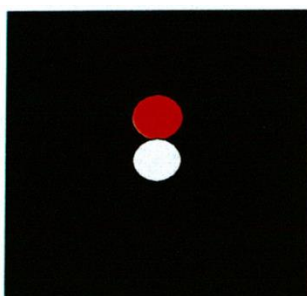

Q24. Identify this type of vessel and her aspect?

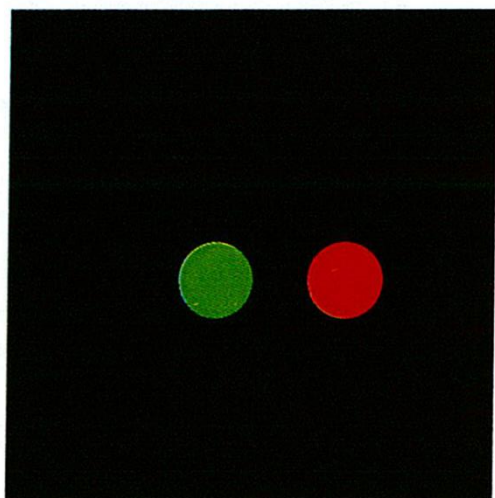

Q25. Identify this type of vessel and her aspect?

Q26. Identify this type of vessel and her aspect?

Q27. Identify this type of vessel and her aspect?

End of Paper